A THIEVING postman targeted valuable-looking packages and failed to deliver more than 9,000 items of post , a court was told.

able-looking packages and failed to deliver more than 9,000 items of post , a court was told.

Benjamine Bryan, of Addenbrooke Street, Darlaston, was working as a postman based at Royal Mail's Bilston delivery office when he came under suspicion after he was found with a package that did not relate to his round.

A second check found the 23-year-old had taken home a package that had no delivery address. An investigation started and a tracking device was placed inside a package containing a 252 gift card.

Bryan took the package home and was arrested after the homing signal was traced to his home address.

He pleaded guilty last week at Wolverhampton Magistrates Court to one count of theft and one of delaying or opening a postal packet and was committed to Wolverhampton Crown Court for sentencing on July 28.

Mr John Dove, prosecuting, said a search of Bryan's home uncovered 11 opened packages as well as 9,003 items of promotional mail. "He was targeting items addressed to customers on his walk that appeared vaulable and if they were he would steal them," Mr Dove said.

The court heard that when interviewed, Bryan had claimed he had not had time to delivered some leaflets. Mr Khlaid Bashir,

A VAN delivery driver carrying drugs was hijacked, bundled into another van, and then dumped in Walsall. The traumatised 31-year-old victim knocked on a door in Woodfield Close, for help.

Shocked resident, Roy Lones and his daughter Jacqueline Lones-Greaves, called an ambulance. Retired company owner Mr Lones, aged 75, said: "He'd been driven round for about an hour, he thought. He was confused and delirious and didn't know where he was."

His van, belonging to AAH Pharmaceuticals, was travelling on Pages Lane in Great Barr, last Thursday morning, when a Peugeot 307 crashed into it.

A masked man confronted him and jumped into the van, speeding off towards Walsall. The delivery driver was then bundled into the back of a white Transit van which pulled up at the scene.

AAH spokesman said the driver was recovering. Anyone with information should call police on 0345 113 5000.

New forums vow by top councillor

Three new community forums will be set up in Willenhall, a senior councillor has promised.

Labour's Councillor Sean Coughlan is now chairman of the Willenhall Snoth and Short Heath Area Partnership.

"I'm committed to ensuring that the area committee has a resident and community-led focus. This will give local people a real say in what's happening in the area," he said.

A 120-name petition called for the reintroduction of the 639 service and a motion was tabled in the House of Commons.

There was relief and joy after National Express West Midlands announced that it would be bringing back the route from Sunday, July 24, renumbered as the 38. The service runs from Wednesbury to Walsall via Darlaston, Kings Hill and the hospital, and will run every 20 minutes, finishing at 7pm.

However, there were concerns that the bus would be finishing an hour before visiting hours finish at 8pm.

Councillor Rose Burley, of Bentley and Darlaston North ward, said: "I am pleased to see they are now going to be operating a service that serves the areas of Wednesbury, Kings Hill and Darlaston.

Rosie bakes some magic macaroons

A PASTRY chef from Walsall is set to rival the world famous patisseries of London and Paris after launching her own social enterprise producing macaroons.

Rosie Ginday has already secured orders from the Chameleon bar and restaurant, in Birmingham city centre, and a US-themed bakery and is now setting her sights on targeting food fairs, fashion events and top retailers like Selfridges and Harvey Nichols.

She is marketing the range – which includes orange, strawberry, passion fruit, dark chocolate and white chocolate flavours – under the Miss Macaroon brand and believes their exclusivity will see them soon replace cupcakes as0 the fashionable baked confection of choice.

There are also plans to use the business to give employment and training opportunities.

Rosie, now living in Birmingham, has trained under Michelin-starred chef Glynn Purnell.

She said: "Macaroons, which have a crisp outer shell and rich creamy interior, are extremely popular in the cosmopolitan cities of London, Paris and Milan and I'm hoping we can create a similar culture right here.

"University College Birmingham is letting me use their facilities."

Extra area for parking eases car boot chaos

ALMOST 400 extra car parking spaces have been created at a car boot sale near Walsall after two-mile tailbacks clogged up a village.

Drivers wanting to get to the Bognop Road site in Essington dodged new 50p parking charges by leaving their vehicles along the road last week. Cars queued on the A460 Cannock Road all the way to the junction of the M54 motorway.

Police issued fines, towed away a vehicle and closed the car boot sale for 40 minutes to alleviate the chaos.

On Sunday, bosses created an extra 380 spaces and coned off Bognop Road, meaning there was no repeat of the pre-vious week's Sunday's chaotic scenes.

Owner Kevin Brown, of Midland Car Boot Sales, said: "We completely coned all down the road and we've also got an overspill car park opened up.
"We've cleared all round the fields to make sure there's room for car parking and removed soil from the long grass and we've made room for an extra 380 cars with the overspill car park. There were no traffic problems or congestion."
The disruption on Sunday, June 26, left councillors and the owners of Essington Fruit Farm frustrated.
Mr Brown said it had been "one of those weeks", as soaring temperatures brought in extra visitors. "Once one person starting parking down the road, they all started doing it," he said.
He blamed the introduction of a 50p parking charge on increased overheads.
Essington Parish Council chairman
David Clifft said the decision to cone off the road was "very good news".

Chase Line's passenger numbers soar

THE Chase rail line which serves Walsall has seen a huge surge in passenger numbers – almost trebling at one station, new figures show.

The route, which runs from Rugeleyto Birmingham New Street, via Walsall, is now showing the second highest passenger growth in the West Midlands. The figures, released by the Office of Rail Regulation, represent a 15 per cent increase at Cannock station, 12 per cent at Rugeley Town and a massive 161 per cent at Rugeley Trent Valley.

Centro has now asked local authorities for extra money to help run the service beyond December. Cannock Chase Council has agreed to provide £2,000 over the three years because of the crucial link with Birmingham.

Centro has also asked Staffordshire County Council to share the costs based on an annual combined contribution of £53,000.

CHILDREN at a Walsall school dressed to impress to help raise cash towards a new play area. A fashion show was held by pupils at Mossley Primary. Parents and pupils are looking to collect £1,600 towards the play area at the Tintern Crescent school which will see tyres used as rubber stepping stones. They are also looking to donate money to Promise Dreams for seriously and terminally ill children. The school fashion show involved 60 children aged three to 11 modelling clothes donated by Smartys. The firm also donated just over £300.

As part of the steps to slow down motorists, police and council officers will be leading a crackdown on those who break the law. Mark Rickard, for Walsall Council, said: "The process of determining the decision on the speed limit review is being completed and we will seek to implement the changes to Sutton Road towards late July with the other locations following early August." The introduction of the new speed limits will be accompanied by road safety education days which will see the police and road safety officers working together targeting vehicles being driven in excess of the speed limit," Mr Rickard added.

TV Jean pays tribute to her 'magic' mum in Brewood, Staffordshire, after the final night of the Britain's Got Talent tour. She described her mother as a "wonderful

Former music teacher Jean said her mother's love of Blackpool and live organ music had put her on the path to stardom.

"She loved going on holiday and Blackpool was one of her favourite places to visit. She really liked listening to the organ at the Tower Ballrom father Bert took me there.

"That is where my admiration for the instrument started, and in 1986 they were back there to see me play the Wurlitzer, as proud as peacocks. I owe my life in music to the support of my parents."

Jean said her mother had also been a keen pianist and violinist and her keen ear for music helped her improve.

Alice proves that she's pure gold

Alice Gold – Seven Rainbows (Fiction)
A decade that's been blessed with a stunning array of new female talent continues with the potent vocals of Alice Gold, pitched somewhere between the grit of PJ Harvey and loveliness of Katie Melua. This is pop with psychedelic hints and a few dark undercurents, from the French 60s pop influenced Runaway Love via the Jefferson Airplane-like Orbiter and the menacing How Long Have These Streets Been Fmptv.

Max McElligott

Wolf Gang – Suego
Faults (Atlantic)
A strong buzz justifiably surrounds this London-based symphonic pop/rock outfit which is a vehicle for the talent of Max McElligott. His musical reference points include Talking Heads, The Killers, Tears For Fears, The Editors and Ben Folds but most importantly also has something unique in his yearning, electrorock wall of sound. Check them out at the Weston Park leg of the V Festival and you can download third single The King and All of His Men or hold on for the debut album's release on July 25.

Simple Plan - Get Your Heart On! (Atlantic)

Simple Plan – Get Your Heart On! (Atlantic) Fourth studio album from the Canadian pop-punkers is a solid set of melodic rockers, more than a match for the likes of McFly but not in the Green Day league, and features some guest singers including Natasha Bedingfield (Jet Lag) and All Time Low's Alex Gaskarth on Freaking Me Out. Other stand-out tracks include Can't Keep My Hands Off You and Loser of the Year Strange that we've become such a celeb-centred society that they can sing lyrics about not getting enough messages on their Blackberry, jet lag and having a fridge full of Champagne without alienating their listeners.

Sophie Ellis-Bextor

- Make A Scene (Essential)

It seems like a long time since Murder on the Dancefloor (and supporting Erasure on Cannock Chase last month she had to contend with mud on the dancefloor). Plenty of quality songwriters and producers are involved in this album, includ-ing Freemasons, Calvin Harris, Cathy Dennis and Armin Van Buuren. But there's a darn sight more misses than hits. The most potential as a hit is Heartbreak (Make Me A Dancer) which is a nicely dramatic slice of electro pop with a hint of Blondie about it.

All Time Low - Dirty Work (DGC)

All Time Low

Punchy punky power pop from a band that formed at high school in Maryland USA. This is their fourth album but the first on a major label and likely to cataput them to the forefront of the pop punk scene that's fast becoming the musical mainstream stateside. Raucous, melodic with a bit of angst but not enough to make things miserable. Includes the single I Feel Like Dancin' and probable future hit Time-Bomb.

Bus pass Richard to travel around UK

A PENSIONER from Walsall who is taking a bus trip tour of England using his bus pass has set a £4,000 fundraising target. Richard Worrall wants to use the money to ensure an outdoor education centre used by thousands of Walsall children every year can continue throughout August.

Embark

Walsall Council's funding of Bryntysilio, in north Wales, was pulled earlier this year, prompting Widehorizons Outdoor Education Trust to take it over during term times.

But cash is needed to run in school holiday time. The centre has been used by pupils from Walsall since the 1960s who take part in various activities at the site including canoeing and team building exer-cises.

Mr Worrall, ex-mayor of Walsall and a former chair-man of West Midlands Pas-senger Transport man of West Midlands Passenger Transport Authority, is taking on the round-the-country bus pass, to evaluate the impact of cuts to services. The 66-year-old, of Burrowes Street, in Birchills, is a member of the Walsall Schools Holiday Camp Trust which owns the Bryntysilio building. He will embark on his epic journey from tomor-

From this excellent start Rushall's final total of 250 was probably at least 30 runs short of what they should have achieved. Only Bob Plant, with 39, contributed as their innings rather fizzled out.

In reply, Coseley made steady if not spectacular progress, with opener Neil Jones carrying his bat with a match winning 89 not out.

In reply, Rushall's openers put on 55 for the first wicket before losing Shaun Allsopp for 19. Tony Dennant 29 and Aftab Nawaz 17 also helped Rushall to maintain their good start.

A mid-innings collapse briefly threatened before Ikram Sawari's 45 took Rushall to the brink of victory

COSELEY 2ND X1 276-5 BEAT RUSHALL

Rushall can be pleased with the character of the side who fought all the way but could not contain Coseley centurion Costello. Cooke had 3-61.

Rushall openers put on on 112 and Mick Cooke smashed 58, but brave resistance from Rushall's young rearguard was not enough.

King's ton topped as Grainger strikes 132

BLOXWICH'S innings got off to a bad start after being put in as Jeremy Scott (2), Pirmjit Singh (6), John Darby (0) and John Ackrill (6) all went early while skipper Danny King stuck around at the other end.

King and Andrew McAree (18) built a decent partnership of 35 before McAree was dismissed, followed by Thom Fellows (8),but then Aaron Allcock joined King at the crease and they built a brilliant partnership of 77 until King finally went for 62.

Allcock then began to take Pelsall pace bowlers apart with fantastic

He was well supported by Lee Bates who finished 23 not out. Bloswich posted a good total finishing on 262-7 off their 50 overs.

Bloswich came out to field in good spirits, thinking they could defend their good total. They got off to a good start, Lee Bates bowled opener Marsh for 4. But then Pelsall batsmen Paul Grainger and McPhereson built a partnership of 141. McPhereson was dismissed by Thom Fellows for 54. Grainger then built another good partnership with A. Pelsall reached the total needed in 47 overs, and Grainger finished 132 not out.

At the end of a tension packed game was a loss to Bloxwich.

Young hopefuls hold key to climb up table

PROMISING youngsters Jake Jones, Connor Deards and Joey Butlin have penned professional contracts with Walsall.

The trio, who have come through the ranks at the Banks's Stadium, have signed one-year deals with a further year's option. The 18-year-olds impressed for the reserves and youth team last term and were offered terms at the end of last season.

Striker Deards smashed 19 goals in 19 Football League Youth Alliance starts last year while left-winger Jones also bagged 12 goals.

Hitman Butlin scored seven and boss Dean Smith reckons they can make a big impact at the Banks Stadium.

"Jake, Connor and Joey have worked hard and developed well over the past two years of their scholarship." said Smith, who worked with the trio during his time as head of youth.

"They fully deserve to be awarded professional contracts." Jake is a wide left player who can beat players easily and has excellent ball control. He also has a good attitude, which will stand him in good stead.

Walsall have boosted their attacking options with the signing of Ryan Jarvis after he was released by Leyton Orient. Peter Blake and his award

Peter Blake, of Hednesford, received Badminton England's English Badminton Award for long standing exceptional service to the sport in England. Blake is chairman of the Staffordshire and Black

Country county badminton associations and received the honour at the annual meeting in Rugeley last Wednesday,

The presentation was made by former Staffordshire player and ex-and England international David Eddy at Rugeley Leisure Centre, in Burnthill Lane.

Rugeley Leisure Centre, in Burnthill Lane.
As well as being county chairman for 10 years, Blake has held many posts in badminton over the last 50 years.
These include being county treasurer for 25 years, county captain for 20 years and coach to Cannock schools at Cheslyn Hay for a quarter of a century.
He was also county schools team manager for five years and spent eight years as South Staffordshire league coaching secretary.

Veterans

In addition, he was a founder member of Cannock bad-ninton club in 1962 and has since been made a life member there.

He was founder of the Stafford and District badminton league in 1964 and as well as holding the post of county chairman is also the county veterans co-ordinator, captain of the over-60s county team.

He also serves on the disciplinary committee of Badminton England.

A native of Heath Hayes and a former pupil at Kingsmead Technology College in the town, Blake has recently retired from his teaching post and, apart from his continuing interest in badminton, is a lifelong supporter of both Aston Villa and Hednesford Town football clubs.

NEW boy Kevan Hurst has insisted he will have a licence to thrill at Walsall and has vowed to be the Saddlers' creator-in-chief. The 25-year-old wants to be let off the leash after jetting into the Banks's Stadium on a one-year deal.

Hurst joined after being released by Carlisle United at the end of last season, and the versatile midfielder insisted he can supply the ammunition for his new strike-force.

"I prefer playing on the wing. I enjoy nothing more than getting at players and creating chances. My main attribute is crossing, but I'd like to think that I can start contributing some goals as well," Sadler said.

Sadler said.

"Tee played at Banks's Stadium a few times over the years and the size of the pitch here will suit my game. I've had a lot of good battles against Walsall and hopefully I can help the club improve and push on."

Hurst's arrival is likely to end Julian Gray's Saddlers career after the left-winger failed to agree fresh terms. Last season's 10-goal top scorer missed the deadline to agree a new deal earlier this month and boss Dean Smith insisted he will move on without him.

Attractive

And Hurst believes the Saddlers boss will harness the talent which convinced Scunthorpe to splash out £200,000 when he moved from Sheffield United in 2007.

He said: "There's certainly a good, positive atmosphere around the place. Dean Smith really sold the club to me and the enthusiasm both he and Jon Whitney showed convinced me this was the place to come. I want to be working with people like that and I'd like to think that they will get the best out of me. "The training ground was a big selling point. The pitches look great and the facilities that we have at our disposal really do make it an attractive place to come and work.

"League One is going to be strong this year. There are some big teams and a number of my former clubs are involved, so it's going to be an exciting season."

Manager Dean Smith welcomes Kevan Hurst to the Banks's Stadium after he signed for Walsall

Double raid tempts Smith amid Chambers mystery WALSALL manager Dean Smith remained tight-lipped this week over his top midfield target as the League One club were again linked with Adam Chambers. The Saddlers boss revealed he is closing in on two new signings and is in talks over Marco Gbarssin and Marc Laird. Smith has been linked with a swoop for Leyton Orient midfielder Chambers - who he worked with at Brisbane Road — as he looks to plug the midfield gap but when asked about him he said: "I can't discuss it at the moment." Former Albion trainee Chambers is available on a free transfer despite being offered a new contract by the O's after making enough appearances to trigger an extension. But he is yet to sign and a move

Sadler eyes promotion

MAT Sadler has fired a warning to Walsall's promotion rivals and insisted they can mount a Championship charge. The left-back is confident the Saddlers can challenge at the top despite only beating the League One drop by a point last season.

Experience
He penned a one-year deal at the Banks's Stadium last week after being released by Watford to become Dean Smith's first summer signing.

And Sadler insisted his new club can build on last season's Great Bseape and launch a shock promotion bid.

"There is no reason why this
